

WE
Are Meant
To BE a HOUSE of Light, Love and Hope.

So ... what's that?

To Be Light is to bring a positive word or a positive action into every situation. It is to dispel darkness, ridding the world of hate, bitterness, anxiousness, fear and doubt. To Be Light, we live by the 3R's — Respect - RightLife - Responsibility and this leads us all to rise to new heights together. We can choose to be People of Peace and Purposeful Living seeking Prosperity for all the world!

To Be Love is to be a person of Empathy and Compassion. It is to practice real Listening and gain Understanding. It is to knit our hearts to the Higher Purposes of True Agape Love; to give of ourselves to the other. It is to build a Community where Love and Goodwill between us moves us all to the Higher Outcomes achievable when we are One Community working together.

To Be Hope is to Have Only Positive Expectations and to live our life moving toward the More Perfect Union. We can realize this as we care about each other and become the Beloved Community — a people who through their daily choices become Change Agents in the world! Overcoming old ways, we choose Love and stay focused on developing our Best-Self Potential!

To Be a House of Light, Love and Hope is To Be the Beloved Community. It is to become part of a Greater Whole. It's to be a person who perseveres to bring their self-interests under the higher law of Love. Realizing the gift of Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness has been endowed to all, we strive to ensure all people's safety and basic well-being. We intentionally seek to build a world where everyone can experience liberty and justice. We're choosing to become good neighbors to all!
